

The duty of this Board is to examine into and ascertain the best means to effect uniformity in the laws of the States and especially to meet with representatives appointed by other States in a convention, known as "The National Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws," to draft laws to be submitted for the approval and adoption of the several States, and to recommend such action as shall best accomplish promotion of such uniform legislation.

The Commissioners receive no salary but are allowed their actual disbursements for expenses, not to exceed, however, in the aggregate the amount of the appropriation made from time to time in the budget.

The Hall of Records Commission was created by Chapter 18, Acts of 1935. It is composed of: The Governor of Maryland, the State Comptroller, the Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals, the President of the Johns Hopkins University, the President of St. John's College, the President of the Maryland Historical Society, and the President of the Board of Trustees of the Peabody Institute of Baltimore.

The Commission supervises and controls the Hall of Records building and appoints the Archivist who has charge of the active management of the building and contents.

Among the records now housed in the Hall of Records are the engrossed laws of Maryland, the large collection of materials, including
