The Governor, without the consent of the Senate, appoints a Board of Managers for the above institution, consisting of fifteen members as follows: Five for two years, five for four years and five for six years from June 1st, 1918, and as these terms expire successors are appointed for the full term of five years.

Eight of the Board shall be women. (Ch. 303, 1918.)

The Juvenile Court commits girls under 18 years of age and the Magistrates throughout the State and Baltimore City commit girls under 18 also.

The General Assembly of 1922 passed an act changing the name of the institution from the Maryland Industrial Training School for Girls to the Montrose School for Girls.

MARYLAND TRAINING SCHOOL FOR COLORED GIRLS

(Act of 1931, Chapter 367.)

For a great many years delinquent colored girls were committed to the Industrial Home for Colored Girls, located at Melvale. This was a private institution, but the Governor appointed two members on its Board of Managers, and it received State aid. This institution has been
