

42). The results of all referenda and constitutional amendments submitted to the electorate are certified by the Secretary. He keeps and publishes the results of elections held in the State; and in addition, keeps the records of the State Board of Canvassers of which he is a member (Code 1939, Art. 33, secs. 127, 220). A record of all commissions issued and all appointments made by the Governor is kept by his office (Code 1939, Art. 41, sec. 67). This office also maintains a record of trade marks and trade names used within the State. There is also maintained here a registry of the employees of agents and counsels who appear before the General Assembly in connection with any act or proposed act, and all such persons must declare, under oath, the amounts expended by them while engaged in such activity. The Secretary of State is also the legally designated attorney for non-resident drivers involved in accidents on Maryland highways, and all processes or warrants served upon him, in this connection, have the same legal effect as though they were served upon the individual (Code 1939, Art. 56, secs. 188-90).

The Court of Appeals is the highest tribunal of the State of Maryland. It was created by the Constitution of 1776. From 1776 to 1805 the Court sat in Annapolis, on the Western Shore. Between 1805 and 1851 Easton on the Eastern Shore as well as Annapolis was the meeting place of the Court. Since 1851 the Court has met only at Annapolis.

By the terms of the reorganization Act of 1943, the Court is composed of five judges, one being elected from each of the first three Appellate Judicial Circuits and two from the Fourth Appellate Judicial Circuit which is Baltimore City. The terms of the Judges are for fifteen years. The reorganization Act further provided that all Judges sitting on the Court at the time of the reorganization, other than those representing the Appellate Circuits, should continue to
