The State Librarian is appointed by the Governor with the advice and consent of the Senate to serve for the term of the Governor (Const. 1867, Art. VII, sec. 3). The Library Committee, which is composed of at least three members appointed by the Judges of the Court of Appeals, exercises general supervision over the library, purchases books, and appoints the Law Librarian and other employees (Code 1939, 1947 Supp., Art. 41, secs. 117, 119, 121). The Maryland State Library was established in 1827 by an Act of the General Assembly (Ch. 53, Acts 1826, Dec. Sess.). The Library is divided into two sections, the Law Library and the General Reference Library. The Law Library has on its shelves a large collection of law books including the acts and court decisions of the Federal government, the various states and territories, and the District of Columbia. There is also a collection of English laws, as well as current legal periodicals and journals. The library also has a number of rare books including the four volumes of the Audubon subscription edition and the most complete file of the Maryland Gazette now in existence. All together there are approximately 112,000 volumes on the shelves of the library. The library is also a depository for publications of the State government, and all State officials and State agencies are required to place in the library one copy of all reports and publications (Code 1947 Supp., Art. 41, sec. 103). The library also acts as the distributing agency for the Journals of the General Assembly, the Laws of Maryland, the Maryland Reports and the Annotated Code (Code 1939, 1947 Supp., Art. 41, secs. 113-116, 118). The reading rooms are open to the public Monday through Friday.
