

- 12—Control Rats and Mice with Warfarin; March 1951
- 13—Chemical Weed Control in Field Crops; April 1951
- 14—Control of Cannibalism In Poultry; 1951
- 15—Use Only Inspected Tomato Plants; April 1951
- 16—Take Care of Sows and Pigs at Farrowing Time; April 1951
- 17—Soil Selection Is Important in Tomato Production; April 1951
- 18—Facts About Transplanting Tomatoes; April 1951
- 19—Start the Tomato Disease Control Program Early, April 1951
- 20—Fundamental Facts About Fertilizer; 1951
- 21—How to Understand and Use Color; April 1951
- 22—How to Produce Quality Beef Calves; April 1951
- 23—Preparing the Soil for and Fertilizing Sweet Potatoes; 1951
- 24—Planting Sweet Potatoes and Treating Sprouts; April 1951
- 25—How to Make Draperies; April 1951
- 26—Arranging and Adjusting Power Spray Booms and Nozzles for Controlling Tomato Diseases; April 1951
- 27—Field Control of Tomato Diseases and Insects; April 1951

Extension Mimeos:

- M- 15 Considerations in Peach Culture; 1949
- M-107 Control of Potato Diseases; 1949
- M— List of Available Publications, Agriculture Extension Service and Agricultural Experiment Station [1949]
- M— Home Tailoring; 1949
- M— Needle Blight of Evergreens in Maryland; 1949
- M— Stump Removal; 1949
- M— Control of Elm Bark Beetles as Possible Means of Preventing Infection by Dutch Elm Disease; 1949

Home Management Units:

- 3 Cleaning the Silverware; 1949
- 4 A 4-H Club Girl Cleans the Living Room; 1949
- 6 Care of the Stove; 1949
- 7 Care of the Refrigerator
- 10 Dishwashing; 1949

Mimeos:

- 13 Textile Painting; 1949
- 14 4-H Etiquette; 1949
- 15 Being a Baby Sitter; 1949
- Fun for the Family at Home; 1949
- Care of Floor Coverings—Linoleum, Asphalt Tile, Felt Base and Plastic; 1949

Maryland State Department of Markets

Maryland Fruit Tree Census and Marketing Survey; 1949

State Board of Agriculture

Agricultural Maryland; 1949 (In cooperation with the State Department of Information)