State House, Annapolis Telephone: Annapolis 2669

The office of Secretary of State was created in 1837 by a Constitutional Amendment. The Secretary of State is appointed by the Governor with the consent of the Senate and serves during the Governor's term (Const. 1867, Art. II, sec. 22). The Secretary of State acts as general secretary to the Governor, attesting his signature on all public documents, commissions, warrants, proclamations and such other public papers as may be required. The Secretary is the custodian of the Great Seal of the State (Code 1939, Art. 41, sec. 42). The results of all referenda and constitutional amendments submitted to the
