

appropriated to institutions, organizations, and agencies, excepting hospitals, are paid on a per capita basis at the rates, and subject to the rules and regulations, established by the State Board of Public Welfare (Acts 1949, Ch. 108).

The Department administers the child care laws with regard to the placement of children in this State. It licenses agencies and institutions having the care and custody of minors.

The State Department of Public Welfare is responsible for the supervision, direction and control of the four State training schools. In developing the program within each training school, including provision for after-care supervision, the Department establishes rules and regulations, standards of care, policies of admission, transfer and discharge, and may order changes in the policies, conduct or management of the four State training schools. Subject to these limitations, each of the schools is under the general management of its Board of Managers. The Governor appoints nine members for staggered terms of six years, so arranged that the terms of at least three members expire every two years (Code 1947 Supp., Art. 88A, sec. 18; Acts 1949 Chs. 314, 692).

This institution was established in 1870 as the House of Reformation for Colored Boys. In 1937, when the property was purchased by the State, it became known as the Cheltenham School for Boys. The present name was adopted in 1949 by legislative authority (Acts 1949, Ch. 692). The school provides for the care and training of delinquent colored boys. During the fiscal year 1950 care was provided for a total of 428 boys committed to the school and 204 boys who were detained at the institution.
