

formatory. The Board may also transfer incorrigible and unmanageable inmates of the Reformatory to other institutions.

The Reformatory conducts an educational program with regular classes in basic education as well as in vocational and industrial arts education. The institution has the part-time services of a psychologist to aid in the classification and examination of those committed. Located on an 875 acre farm, a dairy cattle herd is maintained which supplies dairy products to the Reformatory as well as to other state institutions. A cannery is also operated, and other inmates are employed on Public Works projects. The average population of the Reformatory for the fiscal year 1950 was 882 (Code 1947 Supp., Art. 27, secs. 759-760A; Acts 1951, Ch. 13).

MARYLAND STATE REFORMATORY FOR WOMEN

Alice M. Blum, Superintendent

Jessups (Anne Arundel County)

Telephone: Elkridge 442

The Maryland State Reformatory for Women was established in 1941 as the Women's Prison and the name was changed in 1945. All women convicted of either felonies or misdemeanors, who are sentenced to confinement by a Court or a Justice of the Peace to any institution other than a jail, are confined at the Reformatory. It is within the discretion of the Court as to whether the sentence imposed shall be of a definite or an indeterminate length. Of the 167 women now confined, approximately one half are serving indeterminate sentences. A sewing shop is operated as a unit of the State Use Industries. Approximately ten acres of garden have been developed by the women for the institutional table. The average population for the fiscal year 1950 was 156 (Code 1947 Supp., Art. 27, sec. 761A-761C).

Expenditures, 1950	$141,163.37
