MARYLAND STATE REFORMATORY FOR WOMEN

Alice M. Blum, Superintendent

Jessups (Anne Arundel County)

Telephone: Elkridge 442

The Maryland State Reformatory for Women was established in 1941 as the Women's Prison and the name was changed in 1945. All women convicted of either felonies or misdemeanors, who are sentenced to confinement by a Court or a Justice of the Peace to any institution other than a jail, are confined at the Reformatory. It is within the discretion of the Court as to whether the sentence imposed shall be of a definite or an indeterminate length. Of the 167 women now confined, approximately one half are serving indeterminate sentences. A sewing shop is operated as a unit of the State Use Industries. Approximately ten acres of garden have been developed by the women for the institutional table. The average population for the fiscal year 1952 was 167 (Code 1951, Art. 27, secs. 764-767).
