This Board examines applicants for certificates as Certified Public Accountants and passes on applications by Certified Public Accountants of other states for special certificates of registration (commonly called reciprocal certificates) entitling the holders to practice as Certified Public Accountants in Maryland. Examinations are held in May and November of each year. Those persons who pass the examinations, or whose applications for reciprocal certificates are approved, are recommended by the Board to the Governor, who issues certificates to them. The Governor may for sufficient cause revoke any such certificate, after notice to the holder and a reasonable opportunity for a hearing (Code 1951, Art. 75A).

The General Assembly established the State Board of Funeral Directors and Embalmers in 1902. The Governor, with the consent of the Senate, appoints the seven members of the Board for two-year terms. Every person carrying on the business of funeral directing and embalming in the State must register with, and procure a license from, the Board. The Board must renew licenses annually, and it has the power to suspend or revoke any license. The Board makes regulations for the enforcement of provisions in the laws regarding funeral directing and embalming. In general, the laws deal with qualifications and examinations of applicants for license and registration. Examinations are held annually in Baltimore City (Code 1951, Art. 43, secs. 317-44).
