

convicted of felonies or misdemeanors, who are sentenced to confinement by a Court or a Justice of the Peace to any institution other than a jail, are confined at the Reformatory. The Court decides whether the sentence imposed shall be of a definite or an indeterminate length. Of the women now confined, approximately one half are serving indeterminate sentences. The Reformatory offers educational and vocational training to its inmates. A sewing shop operates as a State Use Industry, and the women have developed approximately ten acres of garden for the institutional table. The average population for the fiscal year 1956 was 164 (Code 1951, Art. 27, secs. 764-767).

Appropriations	1957	1958
General Funds	$329,108	$350,500
Staff: 69 (as allowed by the 1958 budget)
1 State Use Industries Fund

PATUXENT INSTITUTION

Advisory Board for Defective Delinquents

Chairman: Manfred Guttmacher, M.D., Professor of Psychiatry, Medical School of the University of Maryland

Secretary: G. Kenneth Reiblich, Professor of Constitutional Law, University of Maryland School of Law

Jerome D. Frank, M.D., Professor of Psychiatry, The Johns Hopkins Medical School; Peter Lejins, Ph.D., Sociologist, University of Maryland; William L. Straus, Jr., Ph.D., Sociologist, The Johns Hopkins University; W. Emerson Brown, 1960; Jerome Robinson, 1960.

Harold M. Boslow, M.D., Director

James Edgar Smith, II, M.D., Associate Director (Medical Research)

Werner Kohlmeyer, M.D., Associate Director (Treatment)

Paul B. Watson, Associate Director (Superintendent)

Jessups (Howard County)

Telephone: Elkridge 1000

The Patuxent Institution, authorized by the General Assembly in 1951, was officially opened on January 3, 1955. Its Director is also the Chief Psychiatrist of the Department of Correction and is in charge of the psychiatric and psychological work in all State penal institutions. He is appointed by the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Senate, from a list submitted by a special committee composed of the Professor of Psychiatry at the University of Maryland Medical School, the Professor of Psychiatry of The Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine, and the Chairman of the Board of Correction. He holds office during good behavior.

An Associate Director, appointed by the Director from a list submitted by the Department of Correction, subject to the approval of the Advisory Board for Defective Delinquents, is in charge of administration and custodial care of this Institution.

The Advisory Board for Defective Delinquents confers with the staff of the Institution and with the Board of Correction about the problems and work of the Institution. The Board consists of the Professor of Psychiatry in the Medical School of the University of Maryland, or someone designated by him; the Professor of Psychiatry at The Johns Hopkins Medical School, or someone designated by him; two sociologists, one from the University of Maryland and one from The Johns Hopkins University, appointed by the respective presi-