The Patuxent Institution takes custody of intellectual and emotional defective delinquents committed by the Courts or transferred to it by the Board of Correction. The Institution operates a Diagnostic Center, not under the supervision of the Board of Correction, which submits to the Courts upon request psychiatric and psychological evaluations of the patients whom the Courts have referred to the Institution. All sentences from the Courts, after such diagnostic study, must be indeterminate.

The Institution offers an educational, industrial, and vocational program.

The average population of the Patuxent Institution for the fiscal year 1956 was 186 (Code 1951, Art. 31B).
