

The War Memorial Commission, created in 1924, consists of ten members, five of whom are appointed by the Governor and five by the Mayor of the City of Baltimore, all for five-year terms. The Commission elects its own chairman. It has custody and supervision of the War Memorial Building, which was erected to honor the men of Maryland who fought in World War I. The maintenance cost is shared equally by the State and the City of Baltimore. The building is open and available for meetings of veterans' groups and civic and patriotic societies, and for civic gatherings, providing that no collection or donation is taken or any admission charged. Applications for permission to use the building should be addressed to the Commission (Code 1957, Art. 65, secs. 78-82).
