

and operating schedules of public passenger motor buses and to recommend legislation (Acts 1959, J.R. 17).

GOVERNOR'S COMMITTEE ON THE MORAL ASPECTS OF TRAFFIC SAFETY

Chairman: Walter D. Hyle, Jr.
Secretary: Paul E. Burke

Guilford Avenue and 21st Street, Baltimore 18

The Governor appointed this Committee in 1959 to create public awareness of the moral responsibility of each individual for the safety of others. The Committee consists of twenty-six members of whom one is the Governor, nineteen are clergymen, three represent radio and television, and three the newspapers. The Committee encourages clergymen to use and distribute traffic safety prayers and to discuss the problem in sermons, and it encourages broadcasting companies and newspapers to publicize the issue.

COMMISSION TO STUDY THE TRIAL MAGISTRATES' SYSTEM IN THE COUNTIES OF MARYLAND

Chairman: John N. Maguire
Alger Y. Barbee, Samuel W. Barrick, Jacob B. Berkson, A. Freeborn Brown, Lee Gillis, George R. Hughes, Jr., Louis P. Jenkins, Richard M. Matthews, Thomas S. Simpkins, William Sterling, Ernest Thompson, William C. Walsh.

825 Eastern Avenue, Baltimore

At the request of the General Assembly, the Governor appointed this Commission in 1959 to study the trial magistrate's system in the counties with a view to making the position more attractive to highly qualified members of the Bar. The Commission is to recommend legislation to the Governor and members of the General Assembly before the opening of the 1960 Session of the Legislature (Acts 1959, J.R. 18).

COMMISSION ON CITY-COUNTY FISCAL RELATIONSHIPS

Chairman: Clayton Cann Carter
George S. Fockler, Harry R. Hughes, Wade H. Insley, Thomas N. Kay, Edwin B. Keech, Edmund C. Mester, Augustine J. Muller, Edward S. Northrop, Walter Scheiber, Carlton R. Sickles, Russell P. Smith, J. Grahame Walker.

Centreville

At the request of the General Assembly the Governor appointed this Commission in 1959 to study city-county fiscal relationships. The Commission consists of thirteen members appointed as follows: the Maryland Municipal League nominated four; the County Commissioners Association nominated four; the President of the Senate nominated two from among the members of the Senate; the Speaker of the House of Delegates nominated two from among the members of the House of Delegates; and the Governor appointed one member of his own selection, who became chairman. The Commission is to