The General Assembly created the State Department of Public Welfare in 1936 to supersede the Board of State Aid and Charities established in 1900. The Department is the central, coordinating, and directing agency of all welfare activities in the State, including aid to dependent children, old age assistance, public assistance to the needy blind, aid to the permanently and totally disabled, child welfare services, and any other welfare activities financed in whole or in part by the State or Federal government. The Governor designates the Chairman of the Board and appoints its nine mem-
