The Maryland Civil Defense Agency is established under the Maryland Civil Defense Act of 1949, as amended. It succeeded the Council for Defense established by the Legislature in 1941. The Director is appointed by the Governor. The Agency prepares for, and in the event of enemy attack or certain natural disasters, coordinates emergency functions other than those for which military forces are responsible, to minimize and repair injury and damage resulting from such disasters. The Agency cooperates with the Federal Government, the governments of other states, and political subdivisions of this State in organizing and coordinating civil defense functions. It represents the State in the procurement of supplies and equipment for civil defense purposes under the Federal matching funds and surplus property programs. The Director is responsible to the Governor for the coordination of the State's disaster relief operations in the event of the declaration of a "major disaster" within Maryland under the provisions of Federal law (Code 1957, Art. 41, secs. 232-43; Art. 75C, sec. 7).

The Civil Defense Advisory Council is appointed by the Governor, and its members serve without compensation. The Council advises the Governor and the Director in civil defense matters.
