This institution was established by Chapter 392, Acts of 1870 as the House of Reformation for Colored Boys. By Chapter 70, Acts of 1937, when the property was purchased by the State, it became known as the Cheltenham School for Boys. The present name was adopted by Chapter 692, Acts of 1949. The school provides for the care and training of delinquent boys in the middle age group (chiefly 13 and 14 year old youths). During the fiscal year of 1960 it provided care for 527 boys committed to the school and 274 boys who were detained there.
