Chapter 629 of the Acts of 1961 also provided for the establishment of the Advisory Board for Defective Delinquents. This Board consists of the Professor of Psychiatry in the University of Maryland Medical School, or someone designated by him; the Professor of Psychiatry in The Johns Hopkins Medical School, or someone designated by him; one sociologist from the University of Maryland and one sociologist from The Johns Hopkins University, each to be designated by the president of the respective institution; the Professor of Constitutional Law at the University of Maryland School of Law; the Director of the Department of Parole and Probation; and two members of the Maryland Bar, who have had at least five years' experience in the trial of criminal and civil cases, who are appointed by the Governor for five-year terms. The Board elects its own Chairman and Secretary and confers with the staff in regard to the psychiatric, psychological and legal ramifications of Article 31B of the Code in relation to the patients in custody of Patuxent Institution.

Institutional Board of Review

Chairman: Harold M. Boslow, M.D., Director of Patuxent Institution
 Secretary: G. Kenneth Reiblich, Professor of Constitutional Law, University of Maryland School of Law
 James E. Smith II, M.D., Associate Director; Werner Kohlmeyer, M.D., Associate Director; Col. William J. E. Keish, Associate Director; Arthur Kandel, Chief Psychologist; Dr. David Rosenthal, Consulting Psychologist; Dr. Olive Quinn, Sociologist; Elsbeth Levy, member of the Maryland Bar.

The Institutional Board of Review, also created by Chapter 629, Acts of 1961, consists of the Director and the Associate Directors of Patuxent Institution, the Professor of the University of Maryland School of Law who is the member of the Advisory Board, the member of the Maryland Bar, who has served longer on the Advisory Board, and a sociologist appointed by the Board of Patuxent Institution from the faculty of an accredited institution of higher education in Maryland.

The Institutional Board of Review reviews and thoroughly reexamines every person held in custodial care as a defective delinquent, not less frequently than once in every calendar year. Such review and reexamination determines whether such persons shall remain classified as a defective delinquent. The Board makes recommendations in writing for the future status and treatment of each person so reviewed and reexamined.
