President: Walter Merkel, M.D.
 Irving Mahler, D.S.C.; Jerome Lenet, D.S.C.
 S. Jack Kleger, D.S.C., Secretary

P. O. Box 1086, Salisbury Telephone: Pioneer 9-6363

The Board of Chiropody Examiners, created by Chapter 173, Acts of 1916, consists of four members appointed by the Board of Medical Examiners. One must be a member of the Board of Medical Examiners and the other three must be selected from the membership of the Maryland Chiropody Association. The Board examines all persons who wish to practice chiropody in the State. Applicants must have at least two years of education in a recognized college of arts or sciences and be graduates of a school or college of chiropody classified "A" or "B" by the National Association of Chiropodists. The examinations, which may be written, oral, or practical, are given in January and July of each year. The Board also issues annual licenses to all chiropodists engaged in active practice within the State. The Board may revoke the license of any chiropodist, after a hearing, who is charged with malpractice or unethical conduct (Code 1957, Art. 43, secs. 481-98).

The State Board of Chiropractic Examiners, created by Chapter 666, Acts of 1920, consists of three practicing chiropractors who must be residents of the State, be graduated from a resident course in chiropractic, and have practiced chiropractic in the State for a period of at least five consecutive years. The Governor appoints one member each year from a list of five names, including the incumbent member, submitted to him by the Maryland Chiropractic Association. Such members serve three-year terms (Code 1957, Art. 43, secs. 499-511). The Board examines applicants for licenses, investigates all complaints, and if necessary, reports them to the State's Attorney.

The Board holds two examinations each year, in March and September. It has power to investigate and ascertain whether the several schools of chiropractic meet the requirements of the law. Each person holding a chiropractic license in Maryland must renew it annually with the Secretary of the Board.
