Frostburg State College (organized into School of Arts and Sciences, School of Education and Graduate Studies, and College Summer School and Extension) was established by Chapter 406, Acts of 1898 as a normal school, called Frostburg State Teachers College. It became a full four-year teachers college in 1934. The College offers Bachelor of Science and Bachelor of Arts degree programs in teacher education. These degrees are earned also by four-year pre-professional students in medicine, dentistry, law, pharmacy, theology, and in general liberal arts with seventeen possible majors. The College was authorized by the Board of Trustees in 1958 to offer graduate work leading to the degree of Master of Education. By Chapter 41, Acts of 1963, the College adopted its present name. Students enrolling in the teacher education program pay no tuition, but pledge to teach two years in the public schools of Maryland following their graduation. The enrollment for 1962-63 was 1,546.

The Salisbury State College was established by Chapter 280, Acts of 1924, as a normal school offering a two-year preparation for elementary school teachers. Today, in addition to the preparation of teachers for the elementary and secondary schools the College offers the Bachelor of Science and Bachelor of Arts degrees in the Arts and Sciences. A Master's degree in teaching is available through the Summer Session. The non-teaching degree is offered to a limited number of students in selected major fields. Maryland students who are admitted to the teacher education curriculum pay no tuition and must pledge themselves to teach in the public schools of Maryland for two years following graduation. The College is fully accredited by the National Council for the Accreditation of Teacher Education, the Middle States Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, and the Maryland State Department of Education. The College adopted its present name by Chapter 41, Acts of 1963. The College enrollment for 1962-63 was as follows: full-time, 499; part-time, 52; total, 551.
