

varied opportunities for advanced and specialized study, and programs of vocational and on-the-job training.

Professional staffs render medical, psychiatric and psychological services in the institutions. The institutions and camps have complete programs of religious activities, and supervised recreational programs are conducted at all correctional facilities.

The Department of Correction annually inspects all jails, lockups, and other places of detention or confinement located in the various counties and the City of Baltimore. The Department then submits a report to the County Commissioners of the several counties and the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore showing the results of such inspection, together with recommendations as to any improvements which should be made (Code 1957, 1965 Supp., Art. 27, sec. 704).
