The Maryland Civil Defense Agency was established by Chapter 563, Acts of 1949. The Director is appointed by the Governor. The Agency prepares for, and in the event of enemy attack or major natural disasters, coordinates emergency function of State agencies and political subdivisions to minimize and repair injury and damage resulting from such disasters. The Agency assists the county and Baltimore City Civil Defense organizations in the implementation of the National Civil Defense program. It is the agency of State government which aids the political subdivisions of Maryland in the procurement of supplies and equipment for civil defense purposes under the Federal matching funds and surplus property programs; it also manages the program for Federal contributions to the administrative and personnel expenses of the State and Local governments for civil defense. The Director is responsible to the Governor for the coordination of the State's disaster relief operations in the event of the declaration of a "major disaster" within Maryland (Code 1957, 1965 Supp., Art. 16A; Art. 25, sec. 16; Art. 56, sec. 262; Art. 59, sec. 47A, sec. 9B).

Working with the Office of Emergency Planning, Executive Office of the President, the Agency is responsible for coordination of all State agencies, political subdivisions and representatives of the private sector in planning for mobilization and management of resources and production in the event of enemy attack or other major national emergencies.

The Civil Defense Advisory Council is appointed by the Governor, and its members serve without compensation. The Council advises the Governor and the Director in civil defense matters.
