Chapter 41, Acts of 1963 established the Board of Trustees of the State Colleges to direct and control the four-year public colleges of the State. The Board consists of nine members, eight of whom are appointed by the Governor. The State Superintendent of Schools serves as an ex officio member. The eight appointive members serve for two, three, four, five, six, seven, eight and nine-year terms, initially. As their terms expire, they will serve for nine-year terms and may be reappointed (Code 1957, 1965 Supp., Art. 77, Chap. 13, secs. 164-65).

The Bowie State College is a State-operated school for preparing elementary and secondary school teachers. It was originally established in 1867 as the Baltimore Normal School, a private institution. By Chapter 599, Acts of 1908 the State purchased it and moved it to its present location, at which time it became known as the State Teachers College at Bowie. The college adopted its present name on July 1, 1963. The college offers a four-year teacher preparation course leading to the degrees of Bachelor of Science and Bachelor of Arts. Certain majors are also offered in the field of liberal arts. Students taking the full four-year course pay no tuition if they promise to teach in the public schools of Maryland upon graduation. The enrollment for 1964-65 was 506.
