The State Department of Public Welfare operates four forestry camps for boys in cooperation with the State Department of Forests and Parks. These camps were created by Chapter 370, Acts of 1955. The camps are combined into a single administrative unit with one budget and one central business management unit located in the Green Ridge State Forest, Flintstone. These camps serve older boys received on transfer from the Maryland Training School for Boys, Boys' Village of Maryland, and the Maryland Children's Center (Code 1957, Art. 88A, secs. 39 and 39A). Boys selected for transfer must be at least 15½ years of age, must be in good physical health, and must be interested in an active outdoor work and living experience. The camps were created in the conviction that older boys could be guided back to good citizenship under care in these camps, and that at the same time the boys would be assisting in the conservation of the
