MARYLAND CORRECTIONAL INSTITUTION FOR WOMEN—JESSUP

James Jordan, Superintendent

Jessup (Anne Arundel County) 20794 Telephone: 799-2900

The Maryland Correctional Institution for Women—Jessup was originally established by Chapter 71, Acts of 1941, as the Women's Prison of the State of Maryland. By Chapter 520, Acts of 1945, it received the name of the Maryland State Reformatory for Women. On July 1, 1962, its name was changed to Maryland Institution for Women. It adopted its present name on July 1, 1964.

Prior to the erection of this institution, female prisoners were lodged in a section of the Maryland House of Correction; and prior to the opening of the House of Correction in 1879, they had been housed in quarters reserved for them at the Maryland Penitentiary.

Effective June 1, 1967, all persons sentenced by the courts in the State of Maryland are sentenced to the Department of Correction and must be admitted to a Reception-Diagnostic Classification Center for testing, evaluation, and assignment to one of the State's penal institutions. In accordance with this new law, the Department of Correction has established a Reception-Diagnostic Classification Center at the Maryland Correctional Institution for Women—Jessup. This Center will receive all adult females serving sentences ranging from three months through life imprisonment, who have been convicted of felonies and misdemeanors, and who are not sent to local jails. Upon the completion of these classification procedures in the Center, female inmates will be transferred to the Maryland Correctional Institution proper to complete their sentences. At this time both the Reception Center for Women and the Maryland Correctional Institution for Women are located on the same campus.

Agricultural products, derived from the cultivation (by inmates) of approximately ten acres of land, are used by the institution. A sewing shop is conducted as a State Use Industries activity.

The average population for the fiscal year 1967 was 170.
