The Office of Superintendent of Public Buildings and Grounds was created by Chapter 15, Acts of 1862. The Superintendent, who is under the merit system, is in charge of the operation, maintenance and protection of the following State-owned buildings: Government House, The State House, Old Treasury Building, Court of Appeals, Hall of Records, Treasury Building, State Office Building, Treasury Building Annex, Stokes Building, Shaw House, the Income Tax Building, and the Power Plant. He is also responsible for upkeep of the grounds surrounding these buildings as well as the State parking lot and the Stadium parking lot which has been acquired by the State. This agency contributes funds to the City of Annapolis Fire Department, the Sewerage Department and the Garbage Collection Agency for services to all these State buildings. He is in charge of the preservation of all valuable Government House and State House paintings.

The Superintendent keeps an inventory of all movable property located in each of the buildings, and transmits a copy to the Secretary of State (Code 1957, 1965 Repl. Vol., Art. 41, secs. 133-39).
