

an educational tool, and has coordinated its plans and activities with those of the Maryland Educational-Cultural Broadcasting Commission to insure quality and effectiveness of television throughout the spectrum of ETV-ITV.

During the summer of 1967, over 400 elementary classroom teachers, along with interested administrators and supervisors, participated in five regional workshops throughout the State of Maryland. These workshops were designed to introduce classroom teachers to instructional television by means of the participation of the studio lesson and through the utilization of the telelesson in the classroom. The Division of Instructional Television has formulated plans for a series of intra-county conferences, utilizing State department supervisors, county personnel, and special consultants, to consider instructional television as related to specific curricular needs within the several counties (Code 1957, 1965 Repl. Vol., 1967 Supp., Art. 77, sec. 330).

The Advisory Council on Higher Education originally created by Chapter 41, Acts of 1963, had its function expanded by Chapter 40, Acts of 1964. The Council consists of nine members appointed from the citizens of the State by the Governor with the advice and consent of the Senate, solely by reason of their demonstrated interest and broad range of higher education, their knowledge and understanding of its needs and problems, and their devotion to its cause. All members serve six-year terms.

The Council prepares programs for the orderly growth and the overall development of the State system of higher education, the investi-
