The Office of Superintendent of Public Buildings and Grounds was created by Chapter 15, Acts of 1862. The Superintendent, who is under the merit system, is in charge of the operation, maintenance and protection of the following State-owned buildings: Government House, the State House, Old Treasury Building, Court of Appeals, Hall of Records, Treasury Building, State Office Building, Treasury Building Annex, Stokes Building, Shaw House, the Income Tax Building, 93 College Avenue and the Power Plant. He is also responsible for the several buildings which are leased by the State, namely the Jeffrey Building on Francis Street, 50 State Circle, and the leased portion of the Executive Building in Annapolis. The responsibility for the upkeep of the grounds surrounding these buildings as well as the parking lots and the Stadium parking lot which has been acquired by the State, also lies with that of the Superintendent. (Code 1957, 1965 Repl. Vol., Art. 41, secs. 133-39).
