The Department of Employment and Social Services was created by Chapter 96, Acts of 1970. The head of the Department is the Secretary of Employment and Social Services who is appointed by the Governor with the advice and consent of the Senate. The Secretary serves at the pleasure of the Governor.

The Secretary of Employment and Social Services is responsible for all planning activities, budgeting, personnel research and analysis, staff training, program coordination and evaluation, data processing, public information, management analysis and the promulgation of rules and regulations for his office, the bureaus within his office and component agencies: the Employment Security Administration, the Social Services Administration, the Maryland Office of Economic Opportunity, the Cooperative Area Manpower Planning System (CAMPS), the Governor's Commission on Children and Youth, the Commission for the Regulation and Study of Migratory Labor, the Commission on Concerns of Spanish-Speaking People, the Maryland Veterans' Commission, the Maryland Commission on the Status of Women, the Governor's Youth Advisory Council and the Jobs for Veterans Commission (Code 1957, 1971 Repl. Vol., 1972 Supp. Art. 41, secs. 205-205F).

Board of Review

Chairman: Arthur M. Lopatin, 1976

- Florence Cavey, 1974; Frank W. Higinbotham, 1974; Mrs. G. M. Hostetler, 1975; Harold F. Wolff, 1975; Edith G. Blount, 1976; Wilford Dopkin, 1976.

The Board of Review of the Department of Employment and Social Services was created by Chapter 96, Acts of 1970. The Board consists of seven members appointed by the Governor with Senate confirmation, for three year terms. Four members represent the general public while three members are persons of knowledge and experience in one or more fields under the jurisdiction of the Department. The Governor designates the Chairman from among the members who represent the general public.

The Board makes recommendations to the Secretary regarding the operation and administration of the Department of Employment and Social Services and acts in lieu of an advisory board.
