

The Sandy Point Correctional Camp was relocated at the Maryland Correctional Camp Center and the name was changed from Sandy Point Correctional Camp to Maryland Correctional Camp Center by Chapter 385, Acts of 1966. The Maryland Correctional Camp Center functions as the administrative headquarters for the Correctional Camp system as a receiving and distributing point for the Correctional Camp system and as a Correctional Camp.

Four of these facilities (Maryland Correctional Camp Center, Eastern, Poplar Hill, and Southern Maryland) operate under one budget. Inmates assigned to these camps are employed on projects of the State Roads Commission, farming operations, and by other State departments and local governmental agencies.

The Division of Parole and Probation was originally created by Chapter 406, Acts of 1939 to administer the parole and probation laws of the State of Maryland. By Chapter 653, Acts of 1953, the Division changed its name to the Department of Parole and Probation. The Division was further reorganized by Chapter 457, Acts of 1968, when by the creation of a Division of Parole and Probation separate and apart from the Board of Parole. Heretofore, the Director of the Division of Parole and Probation was also the Chairman of the Board of Parole. The Division adopted its present name by Chapter 401, Acts of 1970. The Division administers the parole and probation laws of the State and became an agency of the Department of Public Safety and Correctional Services on July 1, 1970.

The head of the Division of Parole and Probation is the Director of Parole and Probation. He is appointed by the Secretary of Public Safety and Correctional Services, with the approval of the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Senate and serves an indefinite term at the pleasure of the Secretary.

The Division supervises the conduct of parolees, and regularly informs the Board of Parole of their activities. The Division recom-
