

The Board of Review for the Department of Economic and Community Development established by Chapter 527, Acts of 1970, consists of seven members appointed by the Governor with the advice of and consent of the Senate of Maryland. Of the seven members so appointed, not less than four represent the general public. The remaining members are to be persons of knowledge and experience in one or more fields under the jurisdiction of the Department. Of the members initially appointed, three serve three years, two for two years, and two for one year. Thereafter, all terms are for three years. The Governor designates the Chairman from among the members representing the general public. The Governor is empowered to fill any vacancy which occurs before the expiration of a term, for the balance of the term so remaining. The Board of Review hears and determines appeals from those decisions of the Secretary or from any department or other agencies within the Department of Economic and Community Development (Code 1957, 1971 Repl. Vol., Art. 41, sec. 257F-257G).

The Department's Advisory Commission is organized into three specific committees. The Economic Development Committee has broad geographic representation from all parts of Maryland and from various elements of the State's private economy. The Community Development Committee consists of builders, an architect, representatives of local governments and civic organizations. The Tourism Development Committee brings together not only representatives of the industry but representatives of other State agencies intimately involved with the industry: Natural Resources and Transportation. The Committees meet individually on a regular basis while the full Commission meets only on specific occasions (Code 1957, 1971 Repl. Vol., Art. 41, sec. 257H).
