

adequate service and protection from State-chartered financial institutions. The Commission consists of representatives of the general public, the banking industry, the business community, the State Bank Commissioner, the Deputy State Bank Commissioner, and the Speaker of the House of Delegates. The Commission is to report at a later date.

COMMISSION TO STUDY CABLE TELEVISION

Chairman: Robert F. Fischer

Francis C. Barrett, Norman J. Bowmaker, Herbert Cahan, Carlton Y. Dize, William B. Henry, Mrs. Francis N. Iglehart, Jr., Harry J. McGuirk, Thomas J. Rohe, Michael Virden, Anna Beatrice Powell White, N. Page Worthington.

The Governor appointed this special Commission by Executive Order in 1972 to study the Statewide implications of the cable television industry and to report its findings and recommendations.

COMMISSION TO REVIEW MARYLAND'S PROCEDURES FOR AWARDING NONCOMPETITIVE STATE CONTRACTS

Chairman: Abel Wolman

Selected from a list submitted by the National Society of Professional Engineers: Leslie C. Gates, P.E.; Harry C. Simrall, P.E.

Selected from a list submitted by the American Institute of Architects: John W. McLeod, F.A.I.A.; Jack D. Train, F.A.I.A.

Selected from a list submitted by the Consulting Engineers Council of Maryland: Billy T. Sumner, P.E.

Appointed by the Governor: George R. Lewis, Secretary of the Department of General Services; Harry R. Hughes, Secretary, Department of Transportation; Edmond F. Rovner, National Governors' Conference staff; Joseph Murnane, Maryland Association of Counties.

The Governor appointed this special Commission in 1973 by Executive Order to review Maryland's procedures for the awarding of non-competitive State contracts. The Commission consists of eleven members, of whom all the names of the professionals serving on the task force were selected from lists submitted to the Governor by the various societies of which they are members. These include the National Society of Professional Engineers, the Maryland Society of Architects of the American Institute of Architects, and the Consulting Architects of Maryland. In addition, the Governor appointed members of his cabinet, a representative of the Maryland Association of Counties and a nationally prominent economist to serve on the Commission.

The Task Force is to submit its report by December 1, 1973 in order that recommendations may be made for introduction to the 1974 General Assembly.

COMMISSION ON CRIMINAL LAW

Chairman: Thomas J. Kenney

Franklin G. Allen, Mary Arabian, John R. Hargrove, Robert C. Heeney, Josiah F. Henry, Jr., H. Edgar Lentz, James Macgill, John S. McInerney, Charles E. Moylan, Jr., Alan Hamilton Murrell,