² Under the Constitution of 1867, the Governor took office on the second Wednesday of January following his election. His term was for four years with the election held on the Tuesday after the first Monday in November 1867. The term of the incumbent Governor was not affected by the adoption of the Constitution of 1867.

³ Because Governor Swann's term was not affected by the adoption of the Constitution of 1867, Governor Bowie served for three years only.

⁴ Governor Whyte resigned on March 4, 1874. Governor Groome was elected and assumed office on the same day. Because of a family business disagreement, Governor Whyte changed the spelling of his surname to distinguish his branch of the family.

⁵ Governor McLane resigned on March 27, 1885. Henry Lloyd, as President of the Senate, succeeded him as Acting Governor until January 21, 1886, when the Legislature elected him to complete the remainder of Governor McLane's term which expired in January 1888.
