

MONTROSE SCHOOL FOR GIRLS

Leonard F. Gmeiner, Superintendent

Reisterstown (Baltimore County) 21136

Telephone: 833-1500

This school was established as the Female House of Refuge by Chapter 156, Acts of 1886, and purchased by the State by Chapter 303, Acts of 1918. When the School was moved from Baltimore to its present site in 1922, it adopted its present name by Chapter 215, Acts of 1922. The Barrett School for Girls was merged with the Montrose School for Girls on June 1, 1963, by Chapter 37, Acts of 1962. The School provides for the care and training of delinquent girls and children in need of supervision. During the fiscal year 1972, it provided care for 400 girls who were committed to the school and 435 girls who were detained there.

VICTOR CULLEN SCHOOL

James M. Dean, Superintendent

Sabillasville (Frederick County) 21780

Telephone: 241-3131

By Chapter 818, Acts of 1965, the State Department of Public Welfare (now the Social Services Administration) was authorized to establish, maintain and operate a training school for male minors to be known as the Victor Cullen School. The School was transferred to the Juvenile Services Administration (then the Department of Juvenile Services) on July 1, 1967. Prior to the enactment of this act, the facilities were known as the Victor Cullen State Hospital, a tuberculosis hospital, under the general management of the State Department of Health originally established in 1908 as the State Sanitorium.

The School serves boys of all ages who are alleged or adjudicated to be in need of supervision. The School may transfer boys to the Boys' Forestry Camps. During the 1972 Fiscal Year, the School served a total of 593 boys and maintained a daily resident population of 147.

BOYS' FORESTRY CAMPS

Robert G. Wolford, Superintendent

Headquarters,

326-328 Queen City Drive, Cumberland 21502

Telephone: 722-7700

The Juvenile Services Administration operates four forestry camps for boys in cooperation with the State Department of Forests and Parks. These camps were created by Chapter 370, Acts of 1955. The camps are combined into a single administrative unit with one budget and one central business management unit located in Cumberland. These camps serve older boys received on transfer from the Maryland Training Schools for Boys, Boys' Village of Maryland, the Victor Cullen School, and the Maryland Children's Center. Boys selected for transfer must be at least 15½ years of age, must be in good physical health, and must be interested in an active outdoor work and living experience.
