

time to the preparation and execution of the budget. He serves as Secretary of the Cabinet and as Chief of Staff for the Governor and is deeply involved in the day-to-day administration of State government. In addition, Governor Mandel has designated him to head several task forces and ad hoc committees on key problems.

Lieutenant Governor Lee is married to the former Mathilde Boal and they have seven children—six boys and one girl—and two grandchildren.