

boys. It is authorized to transfer to these camps, boys from Boys' Village, Montrose School, or the Maryland Training School for Boys who could benefit from such care.

The Administration also supervises the Maryland Children's Center, opened in 1957, as a facility for short-term detention and study of children judged delinquent by the Courts. The Thomas J. S. Waxter Children's Center, opened in 1963, is a forty-bed facility at Laurel for the detention of juvenile offenders.

The Administration supervises intake, probation, and after-care post-institutional supervision and counseling staff to all juvenile courts. Probation and after-care are separate functions, with probation being the supervision of youngsters who are adjudicated delinquent but not institutionalized, and after-care being the supervision and counseling of youngsters for a prescribed period of time upon their release from an institution (Code 1957, 1972 Repl. Vol., Art. 52A).
