

The Division makes such investigation and prepares such reports as may be required by the Governor concerning persons who may make application for pardon or commutation of sentence or clemency. The Division makes such investigations as may be required by the Uniform Out-of-State Parolee Supervision Act concerning parolees and probationers from other states now living in Maryland. Finally, the Division makes investigations, reports and recommendations with respect to applications for review of criminal sentences as directed by the Court of Special Appeals (Code 1957, 1973 Repl. Vol., Art. 26, secs. 130-136).

The Division makes available the services of its staff to the Circuit Courts for the respective Counties, the Supreme Bench of Baltimore City, the District Courts, the Parole Commission, the Governor, and the parole and probation jurisdictions of other states through the Out-of-State Parolee Supervision Act.

Recently the Division has shown tremendous growth in investigation and supervision workload. It is now developing a diversification of its services which are geared to the needs of parolees and probationers in the community. These include an Employment Program to secure adequate jobs for worthy individuals unable to obtain their own; an Alcoholism Rehabilitation and Narcotics Program which aids those so addicted; and Family Consultations which provide counseling assistance in family and marital problems. While rendering these and other services, each Parole and Probation agent serves as a counselor and makes appropriate referrals to other agencies, public and private, to facilitate rehabilitation, bearing in mind that the protection of society and the rehabilitation of the offender are primary goals.

The Division maintains offices in the following areas: Annapolis, Bel Air, Cambridge, Central Baltimore (Supreme Bench), Centerville, Chestertown, Cumberland, Denton, Dundalk, Easton, East Baltimore, Ellicott City, Elkton, Forestville, Frederick, Gaithersburg, Glen Burnie, Northeast Baltimore (Govans), Hagerstown, Hyattsville, La Plata, Leonardtown, Oakland, Prince Frederick, Princess Anne, Rockville, Salisbury, Silver Spring, Snow Hill, Southwest Baltimore (Steuart Hill), Towson, Upper Marlboro, West Baltimore, Westminster, and Woodlawn.

During the fiscal year which ended June 30, 1976, the Division supervised approximately 38,000 parolees and probationers, 69,000 family cases, and conducted approximately 14,000 investigations of various types.

The Maryland Parole Commission was created by Chapter 540, Acts of 1976 to replace the Board of Parole. The previous board had been established by Chapter 457, Acts of 1968 to replace the Board of Parole and Probation.

The Commission is composed of a Chairman and six Commissioners, all of whom are appointed for terms of six years by the Secretary of Public Safety and Correctional Services with the approval of the Governor and with the advice and consent of the Senate. The Secretary of Public Safety and Correctional Services designates the Chairman of the Commission.

The Commission utilizes hearing examiners to hear certain cases for parole release. The Commission itself has the exclusive power to hear certain serious cases for parole release and has the exclusive power to conduct hearings for revocation of parole. The jurisdiction of the Commission extends to persons sentenced under the laws of this State to any penal or correctional institution, including local jails and detention centers. It has the power to issue war-
