

the patient and his family. In conjunction with the Outpatient Clinic, the Institution operates a Halfway House at the same location. This residential unit provides housing and supportive services for parolees who have inadequate personal or family resources to support them in the community. Additionally, the Institution houses all pre-parole patients in a newly constructed Pre-Release Center located on the grounds of the Institution. This new forty bed facility is staffed by a trained social worker and officer-counselors who provide continuous counseling and supervision.

Institutional Board of Review

Chairman: J. Brown Hardy, MSW, Acting Chief Administrative Officer, Patuxent Institution

Forrest Calhoun, Jr., Associate Director, Patuxent Institution; Arthur Kandel, Ph.D., Associate Director, Patuxent Institution; Olive W. Quinn, Ph.D., Sociologist; H. Russell Smouse, member of the Maryland Bar; Edward A. Tomlinson, Professor of Constitutional Law, University of Maryland Law School.

The Institutional Board of Review, created by Chapter 629, Acts of 1961, is charged with reviewing and thoroughly re-examining every patient confined as a Defective Delinquent not less than once in every calendar year. This Board makes recommendations for future status and treatment of each patient and is authorized to grant leaves or paroles to patients when it is determined that society and the patient would benefit from such status. This Board sets the terms and conditions of any such leave or parole, and may revoke same at any time. In addition, this Board makes recommendations to the Court of proper jurisdiction for the termination of the indeterminate sentence of defective delinquents when it believes that the patient is sufficiently improved to warrant his unconditional release from custody and return to the community. Chapter 392, Acts of 1970 modified the procedures for making re-examination so as to permit procedures and tests not used in the original determination

The Maryland State Police, originally established by Chapter 303, Acts of 1935, had its functions recodified by Chapter 547, Acts of 1968. The Agency is charged with the enforcement of the motor vehicle and criminal laws of the State, and more specifically, to safeguard the lives and safety of all persons within the State, to protect property, and to assist in securing to all persons the equal protection of law. The Agency also has the responsibility to preserve the public peace; to detect and prevent crime; to enforce the laws and ordinances of the State and its local subdivisions; to apprehend and arrest criminals and those who violate or are lawfully accused of violating such laws and ordinances; to preserve order in public places; to maintain the safe and orderly flow of traffic on public streets and highways; to cooperate with and assist law enforcement agencies in carrying out their duties; and to discharge its duties and responsibilities with the dignity and manner which will inspire public confidence and respect.

The Agency has State-wide jurisdiction, except in incorporated municipalities. Within such municipalities its jurisdiction is limited to: (1) when in pursuit of an offender or suspected offender; (2) when in search of an offender or suspected offender wanted for a crime committed outside the limits of the municipality, or when interviewing or seeking to interview a witness or supposed witness to such a crime; (3) when
