The State Board for Community Colleges was established by Chapter 454, Acts of 1968, to coordinate the community colleges in the State. Until July 1, 1969, the Board served as an advisory board to the State Board of Education with respect to the operation, promotion and functions of the community colleges. After July 1, 1969, the Board assumed its statutory duties.

The Board consists of eight members. Seven members are appointed by the Governor with the advice and consent of the senate for six-year terms. One member must be a student member appointed by the Governor upon the recommendation of the Community College Presidents, with the advice and consent of the Senate for a one-year term of office (Chapter 537, Acts of 1973). Members of the Board must be appointed for their interest in civic and public affairs and for their knowledge and perception in educational matters. The Board selects its own officers and employees.

The same Act provided that local boards of education sponsoring community colleges could request of the Governor that they be divested of authority, which authority would then be vested in separate local boards of community college trustees. Chapter 538 of the Acts of 1976 maintains existing boards of trustees, and authorizes the Governor to establish, upon petition of the respective counties, boards of trustees where no community colleges currently exist, upon approval of the State Board for Higher Education acting upon the recommendation of the State Board for Community Colleges. All local boards of trustees are appointed by the Governor, except in Baltimore City, where appointments are made by the Mayor and City Council.
