By Chapter 476, Acts of 1951, an Advisory Board for Defective Delinquents was created to serve as an advisory and consultative body to the Director. By Chapter 629, Acts of 1961, the Institution became an autonomous agency and a new Board of Patuxent Institution was created, in addition to the Advisory Board for Defective Delinquents, to serve as the governing body for the Institution. By Chapter 401, Acts of 1970, the Institution became a part of the Department of Public Safety and Correctional Services, and continued to retain both of these boards. By Chapter 284, Acts of 1975, the Board of Patuxent Institution and the Advisory Board for Defective Delinquents were merged into one single Board, known as the Board of Patuxent Institution. That combined board provided a general consultative and advisory service to the staff of the Institution and the Secretary of Public Safety and Correctional Services on problems and matters relating to its work. With the total repeal and re-enactment of Article 31B by Chapter 678, Acts of 1977, the Board of Patuxent Institution was retained to consult with and advise the Director and the Secretary with respect to the operation, programs, services, personnel, and rules and regulations of the Institution. The Board of Patuxent Institution consists of the Administrator of the Mental Hygiene Administration, the Commissioner of Correction, and the Director of Parole and Probation who serve ex officio; a professor of psychiatry at the Medical School of the University of Maryland appointed by the Secretary upon nomination of the president of that university; a professor of psychiatry at the Medical School of The Johns Hopkins University appointed by the Secretary upon nomination of the president of that university; a competent sociologist or criminologist from the faculty of the University of Maryland appointed by the Secretary upon nomination of the president of that university; a competent sociologist or criminologist from the faculty of The Johns Hopkins University appointed by the Secretary upon nomination of the president of that university; a full-time professor of constitutional or criminal law at the law school of the University of Maryland appointed by the Secretary upon nomination of the dean of that law school; a full-time professor of constitutional or criminal law at the law school of the University of Baltimore appointed by the Secretary upon nomination of the dean of that law school; two practicing members of the Maryland Bar with at least five years experience in the trial of civil or criminal cases; and six persons from the general public who are eligible for any of the other appointments to the board, appointed by the Secretary with the approval of the Governor and the advice and consent of the Senate.

The members of the board, other than the ex officio members, serve a term of four years and are eligible for reappointment (Code 1957, Art. 31B, secs. 1-16).
