The Maryland Police Training Commission was created by Chapter 286, Acts of 1966, to fulfill the need for improvement in the administration of law enforcement by raising the standards of training and education.

The Commission consists of fourteen members of whom eleven are non-appointive office holders. These include the Deputy Secretary of Public Safety, the President of the Maryland Chiefs of Police Association, the President of the Maryland Law Enforcement Officers, Inc., the Attorney General of the State of Maryland, the Superintendent of the Maryland State Police, the Commissioner of the Baltimore City Police Department, the President of the University of Maryland, the President of the Eastern Shore Police Association, a representative of the Fraternal Order of Police, the President of the Maryland State Sheriffs' Association, and the Agent in Charge of the Baltimore office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. The Secretary of Public Safety and Correctional Services, with the approval of the Governor and with the advice and consent of the Senate, appoints the remaining three members for three-year terms. Each appointive member must be from a different geographical area of the State. The eleven non-appointive members may be represented by alternates, except for the Deputy Secretary for Public Safety who serves as the Chairperson.

Subject to the authority of the Secretary of Public Safety and Correctional Services, the Commission is vested with the following authority, responsibilities, and duties: to prescribe standards for the approval and continuation of approval of entrance-level and in-service schools at which police training and security training courses required by this section shall be conducted, including but not limited to present existing State, regional, county, and municipal police training schools; to approve and issue
