At the request of the General Assembly the Acting Governor created the Study Commission on Workmen's Compensation Coverage in November 1978 (Res. No. 5, Acts of 1978). The Commission is to consider the problem of industrial health and the adequacy of Workmen's Compensation coverage, and to report to the Governor with recommendations as to areas where legislation may be necessary.

The Commission consists of fifteen members: three from industry, three from labor, two who are physicians experienced in the field of industrial health, one from the mutual insurance companies, one from the stock insurance companies, one from the self insured employers, and two from the Governor's Commission to Review Laws Governing the Workmen's Compensation Laws, all appointed by the Governor.
