

CHARLES E. ORTH, JR. Court of Appeals, 1976 — . Born in Baltimore, September 9, 1913. Attended Friends School; Johns Hopkins University, A.B., 1935; University of Baltimore, LL.B., 1939. Admitted to the Maryland Bar, 1939. Served in the U.S. Army. Member, Maryland State and Baltimore City Bar Associations. Phi Beta Kappa; Omicron Delta Kappa. Judge, Court of Special Appeals, 1967–1976 (chief judge, 1972–1976). Married; 2 children.

MARVIN H. SMITH. Court of Appeals, 1968 — . Born in Federalsburg, August 10, 1916. Attended Caroline County public schools (Federalsburg); Washington

College, A.B., 1937; University of Maryland, LL.B., 1941. Admitted to the Maryland Bar, 1941. Member, American, Maryland State, Caroline County, and Second Judicial Circuit Bar Associations; American Judicature Society. Caroline County Board of Education, 1951–1953; Commission to Revise the Criminal Law of Maryland, 1952; assistant attorney general of Maryland, 1953–1955; chairman, Trustees of Clients' Security Trust Fund, 1966–1968; delegate, Constitutional Convention, 1967–1968. Boy Scouts of America, Silver Beaver, 1968, Distinguished Eagle, 1975. Mason; Rotarian; member, American Legion. Married; 3 children.