CHESAPEAKE BAY COMMISSION

Members from the Senate: Peter A. Bozick, Joseph J. Long, Sr.

Members from the House of Delegates: Catherine I. Riley, Elizabeth S. Smith, W. Henry Thomas

James B. Coulter, Secretary, Department of Natural Resources

Citizen member: Jack. F. Witten

The Chesapeake Bay Commission, based on a bi-state agreement between Maryland and Virginia, was created by Chapter 674, Acts of 1980. It resulted from recommendations included in the final report of the Chesapeake Bay Legislative Commission, which indicated the need for improved coordination of Bay-wide management to meet the long-term needs of the people of both Maryland and Virginia.

The Commission consists of fourteen members, seven each from Maryland and Virginia. Five members from each state are members of the state legislature. Of the five Maryland legislature members, two are senators designated by the president of the Senate and three are delegates designated by the speaker of the House. The Governor or his designee serves as a member. Another member who is neither a legislator nor a member of the Executive branch is jointly selected by the president of the Senate and the speaker of the House. Legislative members serve terms coterminous with their current terms of office. Non-legislative members serve at the pleasure of their respective appointing authorities, but such terms cannot exceed four years unless they are reappointed. The chairperson and vice-chairperson are selected annually by the members, with each position alternating annually between the delegations from the two states.

The Commission is to assist the legislatures of Maryland and Virginia in evaluating and responding to problems of mutual concern relating to the Chesapeake Bay, to encourage cooperative coordinated resource planning and action by the signatories and their agencies, and to provide, where appropriate, through recommendation to the respective legislatures, uniformity of legislative application.
