MARYLAND CAPSULE CHRONOLOGY

a 10 000 P.C	Indiana lunamus ta hava lived in Mandand has the date
c.10,000 B.C.	Indians known to have lived in Maryland by this date.
c. 1000 B.C.	Indian introduction of pottery.
c. 800 B.C	Indian introduction of domesticated plants.
c. 1000 A.D	Permanent Indian villages established.
1498	John Cabot sailed along Eastern Shore off present-day Worcester County.
1524	Giovanni da Verrazano passed mouth of Chesapeake Bay.
1572	Pedro Menendez de Aviles, Spanish governor of Florida, explored
	Chesapeake Bay.
1608	Capt. John Smith explored Chesapeake Bay.
1629	George Calvert, 1st Lord Baltimore, left Avalon in Newfoundland,
102)	visited Virginia.
1631
1632, June 20	Kent Island settled by Virginians under William Claiborne.
1032, June 20	Maryland Charter granted to Cecilius Calvert, 2nd Lord Balti-
1/22 N 22	more, by Charles I.
1633, Nov. 22	The Ark and the Dove set sail from Cowes, England, for Maryland.
1634, March 25	Landing of settlers at St. Clement's Island.
1645	Ingle's Rebellion.
1647/8, Jan. 21	Margaret Brent denied right to vote in General Assembly.
1649, April 20	Religious toleration law enacted.
1650, April 6	General Assembly divided into an Upper and Lower House.
1652, March 29	Parliamentary commissioners hold jurisdiction over colony.
1655, March 25	Puritans from Virginia defeated Gov. William Stone's forces at Battle of the Severn.
1657, Nov. 30	Lord Baltimore's claim to Maryland reaffirmed.
1664	Slavery sanctioned by law; slaves to serve for life.
1683, May 15	Headright system of land grants ended.
	Printing press of William Nuthead used at St. Mary's City by this 1685, Aug. 31	Finding press of william Numeau used at St. Mary's City by this data
1680 July 1600 May	date. Manyland Payalution of 1690
1689, July-1690, May	Maryland Revolution of 1689.
1690, May-1692, April	Maryland Revolution of 1689. Interim government of Protestant Associators.
	Maryland Revolution of 1689. Interim government of Protestant Associators. Crown rule; Maryland governed as a royal colony rather than as a
1690, May – 1692, April	Maryland Revolution of 1689. Interim government of Protestant Associators. Crown rule; Maryland governed as a royal colony rather than as a proprietary province.
1690, May-1692, April	Maryland Revolution of 1689. Interim government of Protestant Associators. Crown rule; Maryland governed as a royal colony rather than as a proprietary province. Church of England made the established church. Royal assent to es-
1690, May – 1692, April	Maryland Revolution of 1689. Interim government of Protestant Associators. Crown rule; Maryland governed as a royal colony rather than as a proprietary province. Church of England made the established church. Royal assent to establishment act given in 1702.
1690, May – 1692, April	Maryland Revolution of 1689. Interim government of Protestant Associators. Crown rule; Maryland governed as a royal colony rather than as a proprietary province. Church of England made the established church. Royal assent to establishment act given in 1702. Capital moved from St. Mary's City to Annapolis.
1690, May – 1692, April	Maryland Revolution of 1689. Interim government of Protestant Associators. Crown rule; Maryland governed as a royal colony rather than as a proprietary province. Church of England made the established church. Royal assent to establishment act given in 1702. Capital moved from St. Mary's City to Annapolis. King William's School founded at Annapolis.
1690, May – 1692, April	Maryland Revolution of 1689. Interim government of Protestant Associators. Crown rule; Maryland governed as a royal colony rather than as a proprietary province. Church of England made the established church. Royal assent to establishment act given in 1702. Capital moved from St. Mary's City to Annapolis.
1690, May – 1692, April	Maryland Revolution of 1689. Interim government of Protestant Associators. Crown rule; Maryland governed as a royal colony rather than as a proprietary province. Church of England made the established church. Royal assent to establishment act given in 1702. Capital moved from St. Mary's City to Annapolis. King William's School founded at Annapolis. Restoration of proprietary rights to Charles Calvert, 5th Lord Baltimore.
1690, May – 1692, April	Maryland Revolution of 1689. Interim government of Protestant Associators. Crown rule; Maryland governed as a royal colony rather than as a proprietary province. Church of England made the established church. Royal assent to establishment act given in 1702. Capital moved from St. Mary's City to Annapolis. King William's School founded at Annapolis. Restoration of proprietary rights to Charles Calvert, 5th Lord
1690, May – 1692, April	Maryland Revolution of 1689. Interim government of Protestant Associators. Crown rule; Maryland governed as a royal colony rather than as a proprietary province. Church of England made the established church. Royal assent to establishment act given in 1702. Capital moved from St. Mary's City to Annapolis. King William's School founded at Annapolis. Restoration of proprietary rights to Charles Calvert, 5th Lord Baltimore.
1690, May – 1692, April	Maryland Revolution of 1689. Interim government of Protestant Associators. Crown rule; Maryland governed as a royal colony rather than as a proprietary province. Church of England made the established church. Royal assent to establishment act given in 1702. Capital moved from St. Mary's City to Annapolis. King William's School founded at Annapolis. Restoration of proprietary rights to Charles Calvert, 5th Lord Baltimore. Catholic disenfranchisement.
1690, May – 1692, April	Maryland Revolution of 1689. Interim government of Protestant Associators. Crown rule; Maryland governed as a royal colony rather than as a proprietary province. Church of England made the established church. Royal assent to establishment act given in 1702. Capital moved from St. Mary's City to Annapolis. King William's School founded at Annapolis. Restoration of proprietary rights to Charles Calvert, 5th Lord Baltimore. Catholic disenfranchisement. Maryland Gazette began publication at Annapolis. Baltimore Town established.
1690, May – 1692, April 1692, April – 1715 1694 1696 1715 1718 1727, Sept. 1729	Maryland Revolution of 1689. Interim government of Protestant Associators. Crown rule; Maryland governed as a royal colony rather than as a proprietary province. Church of England made the established church. Royal assent to establishment act given in 1702. Capital moved from St. Mary's City to Annapolis. King William's School founded at Annapolis. Restoration of proprietary rights to Charles Calvert, 5th Lord Baltimore. Catholic disenfranchisement. Maryland Gazette began publication at Annapolis. Baltimore Town established. Establishment of boundary line with three lower counties of Penn-
1690, May – 1692, April 1692, April – 1715 1694 1696 1715 1718 1727, Sept. 1729 1732	Maryland Revolution of 1689. Interim government of Protestant Associators. Crown rule; Maryland governed as a royal colony rather than as a proprietary province. Church of England made the established church. Royal assent to establishment act given in 1702. Capital moved from St. Mary's City to Annapolis. King William's School founded at Annapolis. Restoration of proprietary rights to Charles Calvert, 5th Lord Baltimore. Catholic disenfranchisement. Maryland Gazette began publication at Annapolis. Baltimore Town established. Establishment of boundary line with three lower counties of Pennsylvania, which later became Delaware.
1690, May – 1692, April 1692, April – 1715 1694 1696 1715 1718 1727, Sept. 1729	Maryland Revolution of 1689. Interim government of Protestant Associators. Crown rule; Maryland governed as a royal colony rather than as a proprietary province. Church of England made the established church. Royal assent to establishment act given in 1702. Capital moved from St. Mary's City to Annapolis. King William's School founded at Annapolis. Restoration of proprietary rights to Charles Calvert, 5th Lord Baltimore. Catholic disenfranchisement. Maryland Gazette began publication at Annapolis. Baltimore Town established. Establishment of boundary line with three lower counties of Pennsylvania, which later became Delaware. Indian chiefs of the Six Nations relinquished by treaty all claims to
1690, May – 1692, April 1692, April – 1715 1694 1696 1715 1718 1727, Sept. 1729 1732 1744, June 30	Maryland Revolution of 1689. Interim government of Protestant Associators. Crown rule; Maryland governed as a royal colony rather than as a proprietary province. Church of England made the established church. Royal assent to establishment act given in 1702. Capital moved from St. Mary's City to Annapolis. King William's School founded at Annapolis. Restoration of proprietary rights to Charles Calvert, 5th Lord Baltimore. Catholic disenfranchisement. Maryland Gazette began publication at Annapolis. Baltimore Town established. Establishment of boundary line with three lower counties of Pennsylvania, which later became Delaware. Indian chiefs of the Six Nations relinquished by treaty all claims to land in colony.
1690, May – 1692, April 1692, April – 1715 1692 1694 1696 1715 1718 1727, Sept. 1729 1732 1744, June 30 1747	Maryland Revolution of 1689. Interim government of Protestant Associators. Crown rule; Maryland governed as a royal colony rather than as a proprietary province. Church of England made the established church. Royal assent to establishment act given in 1702. Capital moved from St. Mary's City to Annapolis. King William's School founded at Annapolis. Restoration of proprietary rights to Charles Calvert, 5th Lord Baltimore. Catholic disenfranchisement. Maryland Gazette began publication at Annapolis. Baltimore Town established. Establishment of boundary line with three lower counties of Pennsylvania, which later became Delaware. Indian chiefs of the Six Nations relinquished by treaty all claims to land in colony. Tobacco inspection law enabled Maryland to control exports.
1690, May – 1692, April 1692, April – 1715 1692 1694 1696 1715 1718 1727, Sept. 1729 1732 1744, June 30 1747 1755	Maryland Revolution of 1689. Interim government of Protestant Associators. Crown rule; Maryland governed as a royal colony rather than as a proprietary province. Church of England made the established church. Royal assent to establishment act given in 1702. Capital moved from St. Mary's City to Annapolis. King William's School founded at Annapolis. Restoration of proprietary rights to Charles Calvert, 5th Lord Baltimore. Catholic disenfranchisement. Maryland Gazette began publication at Annapolis. Baltimore Town established. Establishment of boundary line with three lower counties of Pennsylvania, which later became Delaware. Indian chiefs of the Six Nations relinquished by treaty all claims to land in colony. Tobacco inspection law enabled Maryland to control exports. Gen. Edward Braddock's expedition through Maryland to the west.
1690, May – 1692, April 1692, April – 1715 1692 1694 1696 1715 1718 1727, Sept. 1729 1732 1744, June 30 1747	Maryland Revolution of 1689. Interim government of Protestant Associators. Crown rule; Maryland governed as a royal colony rather than as a proprietary province. Church of England made the established church. Royal assent to establishment act given in 1702. Capital moved from St. Mary's City to Annapolis. King William's School founded at Annapolis. Restoration of proprietary rights to Charles Calvert, 5th Lord Baltimore. Catholic disenfranchisement. Maryland Gazette began publication at Annapolis. Baltimore Town established. Establishment of boundary line with three lower counties of Pennsylvania, which later became Delaware. Indian chiefs of the Six Nations relinquished by treaty all claims to land in colony. Tobacco inspection law enabled Maryland to control exports. Gen. Edward Braddock's expedition through Maryland to the west. Charles Mason and Jeremiah Dixon surveyed boundary line with
1690, May – 1692, April 1692, April – 1715 1694 1696 1715 1718 1727, Sept. 1729 1732 1744, June 30 1747 1755 1763 – 1767	Maryland Revolution of 1689. Interim government of Protestant Associators. Crown rule; Maryland governed as a royal colony rather than as a proprietary province. Church of England made the established church. Royal assent to establishment act given in 1702. Capital moved from St. Mary's City to Annapolis. King William's School founded at Annapolis. Restoration of proprietary rights to Charles Calvert, 5th Lord Baltimore. Catholic disenfranchisement. Maryland Gazette began publication at Annapolis. Baltimore Town established. Establishment of boundary line with three lower counties of Pennsylvania, which later became Delaware. Indian chiefs of the Six Nations relinquished by treaty all claims to land in colony. Tobacco inspection law enabled Maryland to control exports. Gen. Edward Braddock's expedition through Maryland to the west. Charles Mason and Jeremiah Dixon surveyed boundary line with Pennsylvania.
1690, May – 1692, April 1692, April – 1715 1694 1696 1715 1718 1727, Sept. 1729 1732 1744, June 30 1747 1755 1763 – 1767 1765, Nov. 23	Maryland Revolution of 1689. Interim government of Protestant Associators. Crown rule; Maryland governed as a royal colony rather than as a proprietary province. Church of England made the established church. Royal assent to establishment act given in 1702. Capital moved from St. Mary's City to Annapolis. King William's School founded at Annapolis. Restoration of proprietary rights to Charles Calvert, 5th Lord Baltimore. Catholic disenfranchisement. Maryland Gazette began publication at Annapolis. Baltimore Town established. Establishment of boundary line with three lower counties of Pennsylvania, which later became Delaware. Indian chiefs of the Six Nations relinquished by treaty all claims to land in colony. Tobacco inspection law enabled Maryland to control exports. Gen. Edward Braddock's expedition through Maryland to the west. Charles Mason and Jeremiah Dixon surveyed boundary line with Pennsylvania. Stamp Act resistance at Frederick.
1690, May – 1692, April 1692, April – 1715 1694 1696 1715 1718 1727, Sept. 1729 1732 1744, June 30 1747 1755 1763 – 1767 1765, Nov. 23 1774, June 22	Maryland Revolution of 1689. Interim government of Protestant Associators. Crown rule; Maryland governed as a royal colony rather than as a proprietary province. Church of England made the established church. Royal assent to establishment act given in 1702. Capital moved from St. Mary's City to Annapolis. King William's School founded at Annapolis. Restoration of proprietary rights to Charles Calvert, 5th Lord Baltimore. Catholic disenfranchisement. Maryland Gazette began publication at Annapolis. Baltimore Town established. Establishment of boundary line with three lower counties of Pennsylvania, which later became Delaware. Indian chiefs of the Six Nations relinquished by treaty all claims to land in colony. Tobacco inspection law enabled Maryland to control exports. Gen. Edward Braddock's expedition through Maryland to the west. Charles Mason and Jeremiah Dixon surveyed boundary line with Pennsylvania. Stamp Act resistance at Frederick. First Provincial Convention met at Annapolis.
1690, May – 1692, April 1692, April – 1715 1694 1696 1715 1718 1727, Sept. 1729 1732 1744, June 30 1747 1755 1763 – 1767 1765, Nov. 23 1774, June 22 1774, Oct. 19	Maryland Revolution of 1689. Interim government of Protestant Associators. Crown rule; Maryland governed as a royal colony rather than as a proprietary province. Church of England made the established church. Royal assent to establishment act given in 1702. Capital moved from St. Mary's City to Annapolis. King William's School founded at Annapolis. Restoration of proprietary rights to Charles Calvert, 5th Lord Baltimore. Catholic disenfranchisement. Maryland Gazette began publication at Annapolis. Baltimore Town established. Establishment of boundary line with three lower counties of Pennsylvania, which later became Delaware. Indian chiefs of the Six Nations relinquished by treaty all claims to land in colony. Tobacco inspection law enabled Maryland to control exports. Gen. Edward Braddock's expedition through Maryland to the west. Charles Mason and Jeremiah Dixon surveyed boundary line with Pennsylvania. Stamp Act resistance at Frederick. First Provincial Convention met at Annapolis. Burning of the Peggy Stewart in Annapolis harbor.
1690, May – 1692, April 1692, April – 1715 1694 1696 1715 1718 1727, Sept. 1729 1732 1744, June 30 1747 1755 1763 – 1767 1765, Nov. 23 1774, June 22 1774, Oct. 19 1775, March 22	Maryland Revolution of 1689. Interim government of Protestant Associators. Crown rule; Maryland governed as a royal colony rather than as a proprietary province. Church of England made the established church. Royal assent to establishment act given in 1702. Capital moved from St. Mary's City to Annapolis. King William's School founded at Annapolis. Restoration of proprietary rights to Charles Calvert, 5th Lord Baltimore. Catholic disenfranchisement. Maryland Gazette began publication at Annapolis. Baltimore Town established. Establishment of boundary line with three lower counties of Pennsylvania, which later became Delaware. Indian chiefs of the Six Nations relinquished by treaty all claims to land in colony. Tobacco inspection law enabled Maryland to control exports. Gen. Edward Braddock's expedition through Maryland to the west. Charles Mason and Jeremiah Dixon surveyed boundary line with Pennsylvania. Stamp Act resistance at Frederick. First Provincial Convention met at Annapolis. Burning of the Peggy Stewart in Annapolis harbor. "Bush Declaration" signed, Harford County.
1690, May – 1692, April 1692, April – 1715 1694 1696 1715 1718 1727, Sept. 1729 1732 1744, June 30 1747 1755 1763 – 1767 1765, Nov. 23 1774, June 22 1774, Oct. 19 1775, March 22 1775, July 26	Maryland Revolution of 1689. Interim government of Protestant Associators. Crown rule; Maryland governed as a royal colony rather than as a proprietary province. Church of England made the established church. Royal assent to establishment act given in 1702. Capital moved from St. Mary's City to Annapolis. King William's School founded at Annapolis. Restoration of proprietary rights to Charles Calvert, 5th Lord Baltimore. Catholic disenfranchisement. Maryland Gazette began publication at Annapolis. Baltimore Town established. Establishment of boundary line with three lower counties of Pennsylvania, which later became Delaware. Indian chiefs of the Six Nations relinquished by treaty all claims to land in colony. Tobacco inspection law enabled Maryland to control exports. Gen. Edward Braddock's expedition through Maryland to the west. Charles Mason and Jeremiah Dixon surveyed boundary line with Pennsylvania. Stamp Act resistance at Frederick. First Provincial Convention met at Annapolis. Burning of the Peggy Stewart in Annapolis harbor. "Bush Declaration" signed, Harford County. Association of Freemen formed.
1690, May – 1692, April 1692, April – 1715 1694 1696 1715 1718 1727, Sept. 1729 1732 1744, June 30 1747 1755 1763 – 1767 1765, Nov. 23 1774, June 22 1774, Oct. 19 1775, March 22 1775, July 26 1776, June 26	Maryland Revolution of 1689. Interim government of Protestant Associators. Crown rule; Maryland governed as a royal colony rather than as a proprietary province. Church of England made the established church. Royal assent to establishment act given in 1702. Capital moved from St. Mary's City to Annapolis. King William's School founded at Annapolis. Restoration of proprietary rights to Charles Calvert, 5th Lord Baltimore. Catholic disenfranchisement. Maryland Gazette began publication at Annapolis. Baltimore Town established. Establishment of boundary line with three lower counties of Pennsylvania, which later became Delaware. Indian chiefs of the Six Nations relinquished by treaty all claims to land in colony. Tobacco inspection law enabled Maryland to control exports. Gen. Edward Braddock's expedition through Maryland to the west. Charles Mason and Jeremiah Dixon surveyed boundary line with Pennsylvania. Stamp Act resistance at Frederick. First Provincial Convention met at Annapolis. Burning of the Peggy Stewart in Annapolis harbor. "Bush Declaration" signed, Harford County. Association of Freemen formed. Departure of Robert Eden, Maryland's last colonial governor.
1690, May – 1692, April 1692, April – 1715 1694 1696 1715 1718 1727, Sept. 1729 1732 1744, June 30 1747 1755 1763 – 1767 1765, Nov. 23 1774, June 22 1774, Oct. 19 1775, March 22 1775, July 26	Maryland Revolution of 1689. Interim government of Protestant Associators. Crown rule; Maryland governed as a royal colony rather than as a proprietary province. Church of England made the established church. Royal assent to establishment act given in 1702. Capital moved from St. Mary's City to Annapolis. King William's School founded at Annapolis. Restoration of proprietary rights to Charles Calvert, 5th Lord Baltimore. Catholic disenfranchisement. Maryland Gazette began publication at Annapolis. Baltimore Town established. Establishment of boundary line with three lower counties of Pennsylvania, which later became Delaware. Indian chiefs of the Six Nations relinquished by treaty all claims to land in colony. Tobacco inspection law enabled Maryland to control exports. Gen. Edward Braddock's expedition through Maryland to the west. Charles Mason and Jeremiah Dixon surveyed boundary line with Pennsylvania. Stamp Act resistance at Frederick. First Provincial Convention met at Annapolis. Burning of the Peggy Stewart in Annapolis harbor. "Bush Declaration" signed, Harford County. Association of Freemen formed.