

the Children's Councils examine programs, services, and plans for children; secure and analyze Departmental plans and budget requests affecting children's programs and services; and review the use and availability of Federal funds. They identify, document, and communicate the needs, resources, and priorities to the local chief executive and to the Director of the Office for Children and Youth; and provide public information on children's programs and services. Each Council is appointed by the chief executive officer of that subdivision and includes representatives of the local departments of health, education, social services and juvenile services, and members appointed at large. Members serve three-year terms.

The Governor's Youth Advisory Council was created within the Department of Human Resources by Executive Order in 1971. It was transferred to the Office for Children and Youth by the Acting Governor in December 1978.

The Governor's Youth Advisory Council is charged with communicating the concerns of Maryland youth to the Governor, the Legislature, and the citizenry of the State on matters involving State programs, policies, and legislation that affect the young people of the State.

The Council consists of 115 members between the ages of 13 and 22. One hundred are chosen at random by utilizing a formula that insures equitable distribution by age, race, sex, and geography. Fifteen are selected by direct appointment of the Governor. The Office for Children and Youth provides staff assistance to the Council.

The State Board for Community Colleges was established by Chapter 454, Acts of 1968, to coordinate the community colleges in the State. Until July 1, 1969, the Board served as an advisory board to the State Board of Education with respect to the operation, development, and functioning of community colleges. After July 1, 1969, the Board assumed its statutory duties.

The Board consists of eight members. Seven members are appointed by the Governor with the advice and consent of the Senate for six-year terms. One member must be a student member appointed by the Governor upon the recommendation of the Community College Presidents, with the advice and consent of the Senate for a one-year term of office (Chapter 537, Acts of 1973). Members of the Board are appointed for their interest in civic and public affairs and for their knowledge and perception in educational matters. The Board selects its own officers and employees.

Prior to 1974, community colleges were governed by local boards of education. Chapter 454, Acts of 1968, provided that local boards of education sponsoring community colleges could request of the Governor that they be divested of
