The Maryland State Police originally was established by Chapter 303, Acts of 1935. The Agency is charged with enforcement of State motor vehicle and criminal laws, and with safeguarding the lives and safety of all persons within the State, protecting property, and assisting all persons to secure the equal protection of law. The Agency also has the responsibility to preserve the public peace; detect and prevent crime; enforce the laws and ordinances of the State and its local subdivisions; apprehend and arrest criminals and those who violate or are lawfully accused of violating such laws and ordinances; and preserve order in public places. It maintains the safe and orderly flow of traffic on public streets and highways, and cooperates with and assists law enforcement agencies in carrying out their duties.

The Agency has statewide jurisdiction except in incorporated municipalities. Within municipalities the Agency may exercise jurisdiction, under certain conditions, as regulated by statute (Code 1957, Art. 88B, secs. 3, 4, 20, and 23). The State Police also enforce the laws relating to controlled dangerous substances (narcotics) throughout the State without any limitation as to activities within municipal corporations or other subdivisions (Code 1957, Art. 27, sec. 298 (g)).

The Superintendent directs the State Police. He is appointed by the Governor with the advice and consent of the Senate to serve at the pleasure of the Governor. With the approval of the Secretary of Public Safety and Correctional Services, the Superintendent may designate two deputy superintendents (Code 1957, Art. 88B, secs. 14, 16).
