

and (2) the Maryland Register, a bi-weekly publication that serves as a temporary supplement to COMAR. MIRS, a full-text retrieval system for State statutes, regulations, and other documents, is also administered and directed by the Division.

The Register prints all proposed, adopted, and emergency regulations of the State's administrative agencies, notices of public hearings and meetings, the full text of all opinions of the Attorney General, proposed and adopted rules of court, hearing calendars of the Courts of Appeal, synopses of all legislation proposed, enacted, and vetoed each legislative session of the General Assembly, all Executive Orders, all gubernatorial appointments, notices of bids requested and awards announced on all State contracts valued above $25,000, and any other document the General Assembly requires or the Joint Committee on Administrative, Executive and Legislative Review (AELR) permits to be published. An index to the Register is published quarterly and is cumulative throughout the year. All adopted regulations, and Executive Orders that are generally permanent in nature, are periodically taken from the pages of the Register and integrated into COMAR by means of published supplements.

With the exception of emergency regulations, administrative regulations are not effective until notice of their adoption is published in the Maryland Register. The text of any document appearing in the Maryland Register and COMAR is the only official, valid, and enforceable text of that document. Any document appearing in the Maryland Register and COMAR is accorded judicial notice in all court proceedings.

Subscription information and free informational brochures pertaining to both the Maryland Register and COMAR may be obtained by writing or calling the Division's offices.

The Attorney General is elected by the people for a term of four years (Const. 1867, Art. V, sec. 1). The Attorney General may be re-elected with no limit being placed on the number of terms that may be served. The Attorney General must be a citizen of the State and a qualified voter and must have resided and practiced law in Maryland for a period of at least ten years prior to election. The date on which the Attorney General takes office is unspecified either in the Constitution or in the Annotated Code, but customarily it occurs on December 20 following the election. The Attorney General receives an annual salary of $72,500. The Attorney General heads the Office of the Attorney General, formerly known as the State Law Department, which was established in 1916 (Chapter 560, Acts of 1916).
