The State Advisory Council on Alcoholism Control was created in the Alcoholism Control Administration in 1976 (Chapter 746, Acts of 1976). The Council now advises the Addictions Administration on various matters, including the formulation and execution of the comprehensive intoxication and alcoholism control plan.

The Council consists of twenty-five members appointed by the Governor. It includes representatives from the courts, police, probation authorities, clergy, labor, management, beverage control, the beverage industry, and legal and medical groups. These members serve three-year terms. The President of the Governor's Youth Advisory Council (or designee), serves ex officio (Code Health—General Article, secs. 8-304 through 8-308).
