The Social Services Administration supervises all public and private institutions that have the care, custody, or control of dependent, abandoned, or neglected children, except those placed under the supervision of another agency. It licenses agencies and institutions having the care and custody of minors and registers private homes giving day care services to children. The Administration maintains a central registry of reported child abuse cases.

The Executive Director of Social Services is appointed by the Secretary of Human Resources (Code 1957, Art. 88A, sec. 2).

Each local department of social services has a nine-member board of social services. In each county, board members are appointed to three-year terms by the local governing authority. One member is a member of the local governing body, designated to serve ex officio. In Baltimore City, the board is called the social services commission. The Mayor appoints its members to six-year terms. The Mayor and the Commissioner of Health serve ex officio (Code 1957, Art. 88A, secs. 1, 2, 4, 14, 14A).
